C. Household characteristics

17. Definitions

General definition of a household for this census is:

A household consists of one or more persons living together within the non-institutionalized population i.e., sleeping most nights of a week (at least 4 nights per week) AND sharing at least one daily meal

General definition of a family nucleus for this census is:

NA

18. Head of household / reference person of household

Which one among the following options was used to determine the relationships between household members?

Please select one.

- ☒ a) Head of household
- ☐ b) Reference person
- ☐ c) Other; please describe

Regarding your answer to the previous question, please provide the definition of head of household or reference person that was used in the Census.

In households having more than one member, the person recognized as the head of household by other members of the household, should be accepted as the head. This applies especially in cases where a group of unrelated persons shares a dwelling.

In a one-person household, that person is the head.

D. Housing census characteristics

19. Housing information

The general definition applied in this census for housing unit is:

A dwelling unit is any building or separate and independent part of a building where people live and can provide accommodation for one or more households. It must have direct access from the street or common landing, staircase, passage, or gallery where occupants can enter or leave without passing through anybody else's living quarters. Some buildings, such as apartment buildings, may contain multiple dwelling units therefore, each building must be carefully checked for multiple dwellings. A dwelling can also be attached to a business or an institution, so it is important to ask if the building contains any dwelling units in cases where it is not obvious

The general definition applied in this census for conventional dwelling is:

NA

Are vacant units included in the enumerated conventional dwellings?

No

The general definition applied in this census for room is:

A room is defined as a space in a housing unit usually enclosed by walls reaching from the floor to the ceiling or roof covering or to a height of at least 2 meters.
