

Debt instruments indexed to a foreign currency

The AEG agreed with the BOPCOM conclusions that:

- (a) debt instruments with both principal and coupons indexed to a foreign currency should be classified and treated as being denominated in that foreign currency; and
- (b) the currency of account and currency of settlement should be clearly distinguished in the new manuals.