

Production of storage services is in the current SNA93 and as for Namibia, it is something that still need to be implemented. But this will be after one looked at what is being proposed in the new chapter and see how it differs from the current one in 1993 SNA. But in overall, is something which could add value to the strengthening of data coverage.